Executive Director's Comments

by Dwaine Robey

Thank you to all who attended the Outdoor Buddies banquet at The Wildlife Experience on April 13th. You helped make it a very successful event.

Outdoor Buddies Treasurer, Wally Hunt, reports that the net profit from the banquet was approximately $20,000. We intend to put that money to good use, primarily in purchasing badly needed adaptive equipment & an all-terrain UTV.

With the all-important banquet behind us, the Outdoor Buddies board of directors and committee members are hard at work preparing for future activities and events.

Of course, the Big Game Hunting Committee works year-round planning and scheduling big game hunts. This is a never ending process of finding hunting locations, matching disabled hunters with the available hunting slots, determining adaptive equipment needed, etc.

The next major event is the Outdoor Buddies Community Appreciation Day Honoring Wounded Warriors and other Military Veterans at A Painted View Ranch near Westcliffe. Please see the related article on page 5 of this newsletter and plan to attend if you can!

Outdoor Buddies will be participating in the Focus on Forever Conference being held at YMCA of the Rockies near Estes Park on June 7th through June 9th. On Saturday, June 8th, Larry Sanford will be making morning and afternoon presentations called "MAKING OUTDOOR ADVENTURES POSSIBLE FOR PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES". For more information about the Focus on Forever Conference, please see the related article on page 6 of this newsletter and visit their website at: <http://www.pheasantsforever.org/page/1/Focus-on-Forever-Conference-Colorado.jsp>

The annual Outdoor Buddies Family Day at Swift Ponds will be held on Saturday, June 15th. This is

by Larry Sanford

I send out my sincere thanks to all the people and businesses from all over Colorado who donated items for the banquet.

There were many contributors and I cannot mention them all. But, to name a few, CZ-USA, Sportsman's Warehouse, and Rocky Mountain Shooters Supply.

And special thanks to Jim Moser, for his hand carved Mallard duck, and Rob Myers, for his handcrafted ice fishing sled and gear. These were very special donations, hand made by the donors.

I hope to see many of you in Westcliffe on May 18th.

If you can, come see my presentation at the Focus on Forever Conference in Estes Park on July 8th.

For sure, you must plan to come to the Outdoor Buddies Family Day at Swift Ponds on Saturday, June 15th. There will be catch-and-release fishing, trap shooting, archery, and much more!

Lunch will be catered by the famous Nordy's Bar-B-Que & Grill; you do not want to miss that! It will be a fun day for your whole family and be sure to invite friends.

On June 22nd, join us for Mountain Man Day at Tarryall Reservoir and keep an eye on the Upcoming Events Calendar for a full summer of fishing and fun for all.

I look forward to seeing you in the outdoors soon!

Have a great summer; and may God bless you and your family.

Editor's note

The banquet committee would like to commend Kathy Shears for her work in acquiring banquet auction items and the excellent job she did in setting up and managing the silent auction at the banquet.

This was not a "once a year" job for Kathy; she has worked at it all year since the last banquet.

Thank you, Kathy!

Kathy Shears

We should remember our banquet donors

Terry Nelson, Outdoor Buddies Board of Directors member, points out:

"Often times we don't give enough recognition to the mom and pop businesses and individuals who help make our banquet fundraiser the success that it is.

In the past few years there are donors who I have gone back to year after year, and always with a smile, they say "sure we can."

"So, just to let our members know who these people are, and if they do any business with these donors, they might say hi and let the folks know that we appreciate their support.

Wiggy's Sleeping Bags in Grand Junction
High Country Western Wear in Arvada
Enstrom's Candies in Arvada

OD Green Shooting Supplies in Arvada (with many AR's in stock)

I encourage all members to let us know of other donors so we can do some business with them and keep the good will alive."

Terry is right; please help Outdoor Buddies thank and support the individuals and companies who donate products and services to be used as auction and raffle items at our banquets.

Please let them know that their support is greatly appreciated!

Tom Eckrich Nominated for Outstanding Senior Volunteer Award

Outdoor Buddies member, Tom Eckrich, who lives in Loveland, does a variety of volunteer work. Tom said "I do volunteer work with several veteran organization, but my main thing is playing TAPS at the funerals of my fellow veterans. I have provided final honors for more than 900 veterans of all branches of the military plus some merchant marines."

Tom Eckrich

"Let's face it. If you didn't volunteer, a lot of things wouldn't get done," Tom said.

Tom, who is a veteran who served during the Korean War era, bugles for the Northern Colorado Marine Corps League, the All Veterans Honor Guard and other veteran organizations.

"It's a feel-good thing. It's a feeling of satisfaction," he said. "You know you've helped someone."

The Outstanding Senior Volunteer award is part of the 2nd annual Salute to Senior Service program, sponsored by Home Instead, Inc., the franchiser of the Home Instead Senior Care Network.

Congratulations, Tom!

Outdoor Buddies/Wounded Warriors Shoot at The Green Mill Sportsman's Club Range

by Wally Hunt

Early Saturday morning on April 27th, the Green Mill Sportsman's Club hosted a site-in for Outdoor Buddies/Wounded Warriors.

Pete Labella, our Green Mill Sportsman's Club host, provided excellent weather and a cast of hard working members including Lou Bellinhausen, Pat Beren, Steven Clendenin, Don Conyac, Bruce Gambell, Mel Heaps, Paul Ludwig, Dale McCombs, Ken Smith, Earl Reed, Joe Titus, Mike Towle, Carl Wagner, Josh Wagner and Don Wilkinson.

Additionally, we understand that Butch Dolphin deserves our thanks for maintaining the entrance road, which had suffered from the recent snow storms.

After the Pledge of Allegiance these folks went to work and the shooting commenced. Many of them are qualified range officers, so safety and assistance were great. In addition to a covered rifle range with 100, 200 and 50 yard availability, the pistol range was opened with the same expert assistance available.

Outdoor Buddies and member George Carter provided some refreshments. During a break, Outdoor Buddies board member, Rich Cori, and President Larry Sanford presented a plaque to Pete Labella expressing appreciation for all of the shoots we have had at their big bore and pistol ranges.

Pete said "It was a great honor for me to receive the plaque from Larry Sanford, Outdoor Buddies President. We will hang it in the big bore rifle range for all to see. It is an honor for me to organize this shoot for these guys."

There were 15 Outdoor Buddies/Wounded Warriors participating and everyone qualified.

Many of our members personally expressed their gratitude to Green Mill for providing a great range and such excellent supervision.

The next site-in will be held at the Green Mill range on Saturday, August 17, 2013. The range will open at 8:30 am. Please contact Wally Hunt at (303) 985-2293 or wdhunt2141@hotmail.com to reserve a space.

Able Buddies are welcome to shoot as space becomes available as Handi-Buddies and Wounded Warriors are done. Youth hunters are permitted, so long as they are sponsored by a registered member of Outdoor Buddies, are between the ages of 12 to 17, and have their hunter safety card.

Thank you to Green Mill Sportsman's Club!

FOCUS ON FOREVER CONFERENCE ACCEPTING REGISTRATIONS; CPW OFFERS CONFERENCE SCHOLARSHIPS

DENVER - Colorado Parks and Wildlife and Pheasants Forever are co-sponsoring a June 7 through June 9 conference in Estes Park that will teach best practices for providing outdoor skills education. Participants will receive in-depth training in how to teach skills like archery, cast-iron cooking, shooting, canoeing, kayaking and much, much more. Sessions will also focus on teaching methods that can be used to make sure students are engaged, challenged and retaining outdoor skills for lifelong enjoyment.

The "Focus on Forever" Conference is designed to help current outdoor skills instructors improve and help organizations train new instructors all with the main goal of getting more people outdoors in Colorado.

"Colorado is an amazing state with so many outdoor opportunities," explained Allison Kincaid, Colorado Parks and Wildlife Partnership Coordinator. "People are hungry to learn new skills and get outside but individual organizations may not have the ability to offer all of this training in one place for their staff, volunteers and board members."

The Conference cost is $325 per person but Colorado Parks and Wildlife has a limited amount of scholarship funding set aside to provide a 50-percent match for organizations that can't afford the entire fee. An application for the matching fund scholarship is available by contacting Allison Kincaid at allison.kincaid@state.co.us or 303-291-7252.

"Beyond building skills, we're excited to bring partner organizations together to network," added Kincaid. "Participants will learn about programs being offered by other organizations and, we hope, get a chance to find new ways to team up for greater success."

Details about the Focus on Forever Conference can be found on the Pheasants Forever website at <http://pheasantsforever.org/page/1/Focus-on-Forever-Conference.jsp>.

Coyote Hunts

by Al Montoya

Outdoor Buddies has coordinated two coyote hunts in the past few weeks. No coyotes were taken, but we had a lot of fun.

We extend our sincere thanks to Jerry Francis and Court and Sandy Campbell for hosting coyote hunts on their properties.

Our first hunting group met at the Watkins restaurant parking lot then traveled together Jerry Francis' hunting area.

Some of the participants included George Carter, Sean Haggard, Court and Sandy Campbell, Rudy Duran, and Al Montoya.

After we arrived at the ranch, the hunters set up overlooking a wooded area. Some of us used predator calls occasionally to try to get some coyotes to show themselves.

We hunted for about two hours; then the wind started to pick up and the temperature dropped about ten degrees within about five minutes. So, we decided to call it a day.

We chatted for a while, and then Court and Sandy invited us to plan a future hunting outing at their property near Akron. We agreed and set the date for our next hunt.

For the next hunt, our group included George Carter and his grandson Eric, David Bayne, Dylan Harrell, Wally Hunt, and Al Montoya.

We met Court and Sandy at their home. Sandy had a cold, so she decided to stay at the house.

Court led out on his ATV and we followed him to the hunting area. He showed us in what direction to shoot. We set up our predator calls and started the hunt.

We hunted for about three hours. After which we called in the guys from their hunting positions and headed back to the house.

When we reached the house, Sandy and her mother and father, had prepared lunch. They had grilled hamburgers and made potato salad with all the fixings; tomatoes, onions, olives, etc. And best of all, was Sandy's chocolate chip cookies (my favorite).

After lunch we all headed home with a full stomach and a smile on our face.

Are You a Handi-Buddy in Need of Help with Gun Cleaning?

Outdoor Buddies member, Bill Baker, is a gunsmith and shooting enthusiast with a lot of experience with firearms.

He has volunteered to help, at no charge, handi-buddies who may need assistance with keeping their firearms clean and in good working order.

If you would like to talk with Bill about getting his help, please contact him at 719-942-3027 or js1217c@earthlink.net
