December 2017

Vol 33, No 12

Celebrate the season of giving. Remember injured warriors and others who need our help.

The holidays are a difficult time for far too many of our recovering veterans, other disabled persons, and at-risk youth. Many are spending what should be a joyful time struggling to readjust to life after experiencing traumatic experiences. Please join us to continue to serve them and give them hope for the future by making a tax-deductible gift today.

Year-end is almost here and many of us are considering making tax-deductible donations to our favorite charitable organizations. I am planning to make a donation to Outdoor Buddies to help offset expenses for programs they provide free of charge to deserving participants. I hope many of you will do so also.

A good way to make a tax-deductible donation to Outdoor Buddies is through the Wet Mountain Valley Community Foundation's annual Spirit Campaign. That way, the Foundation will match a portion of your donation. If you wish to do so, please print page 5 of this newsletter and use the donation form to submit your donation. Please remember to make your check payable to The WMV Community Foundation and mail it to them in time to be received by December 31st.

Many Untold Stories

As I compile this newsletter, I cannot help but think about the many great outdoor adventures that are continually happening with Outdoor Buddies members and volunteers that so few people know about.

For example, during the past month Outdoor Buddies volunteers have conducted more than thirty big game hunts for pronghorns, deer, and elk for disabled and youth hunters. Most of these hunters were accompanied by one or more family members and/or friends. That adds up to a lot of great times together in the outdoors and many, many lifetime memories. It is impossible to put a value on these activities, but for many it is a life changing experience.

"The positive experience, which many of our patients have received in working with Outdoor Buddies, has significantly improved the quality of their lives.

For some of our patients who have struggled with the overwhelming demands of their disability, the positive experience achieved through Outdoor Buddies has been the turning point in giving them hope for the future.

We have been particularly impressed not only with the quality of the programs, but also with the high priority given to safety in all of the activities in which Outdoor Buddies is involved.

Outdoor Buddies is a wonderful organization, worthy of widespread community support. We are proud to be associated with them."

Mike Fordyce, President/CEO
Craig Hospital

More Stories to Come!

Following are a few pictures from recent outings. We hope to have stories related to these pictures in the next newsletter.

December Antelope Hunt

By Luke Schreiner

My 2017 Outdoor Buddies youth antelope hunt went great!

To start off the hunt, we woke up at 6:15am to make the 45 minute drive to Meadow Springs Ranch on the edge of the Wyoming-Colorado border.

Once arriving at the ranch, we congregated at the corral and then went to the shooting range and shot a couple of shots. After that, we went with a very experienced guide, Dan Brown.

After driving a ways back, we spotted at least a couple hundred antelope on the border of the ranch and the one over, Soapstone.

After staying at the water tanks for a little while and watching where the animals were going, we decided to single out a lone doe.

We got in the truck and tried to cut her off, but to no avail. We then made the executive decision to go up on the ridge. After learning that one of our fellow hunters had shot an antelope, we spotted a group of around 15. We then followed them and they ran into the valley, we followed.

After learning their route we intercepted them at the gate to Soapstone.

As the most bizarre scene unfolded right in front of us, they jogged right for us. When they stopped, completely unscathed from my previous shot, I squeezed the trigger and got my antelope for the second year.

Luke poses with the doe pronghorn.

I think that Outdoor Buddies is a great opportunity to get youth and disabled hunters back out into the outdoors. I really enjoyed this experience because it shows that we need more youth hunters in the outdoors. I recommend this kind of hunt to any youth hunters that want to harvest their own animals.

Thank you Dan Brown and Outdoor Buddies!

Tarryall Volunteers of the Month

By Jim Piper

We have had some great work done by volunteers at Tarryall, building targets for the shooting range, and constructing shelves for storage in the garage.

Please join us in thanking Edgar Munoz and Charles Jaramillo for spearheading these projects and supplying the materials.

The target stands will come in handy for sighting-in and the shelves are necessary for storage of tents and camping equipment in the garage. For years we have been without adequate shelves, and we can now keep our camping supplies away from critters.

Two Times Blessed

By Steve Medberry

I was blessed to have a successful elk hunt with Outdoor Buddies this year. I am very grateful for the opportunity to go out and enjoy some of the best elk country in the state, meet some quality gentlemen and lifelong friends, and harvest a cow with my own rifle. I had been lucky enough to receive a spot on a hunt in early December, and was even able to bring my wife along to enjoy the experience of hunting alongside me on this particular trip.

On the weekend of December 8th, we set out on a cow hunt on the Trapper Mine property, a sprawling expanse of hills, gullies, draws, and blankets of oak brush providing a perfect habitat for the herds of elk as they migrate away from the winter snows. The snow had been light this season, but it had been enough to finally get the elk moving. I greatly enjoyed the chance to show my wife a glimpse of the world of hunting that I love. She had never experienced anything like it before, yet she showed a keen eye for spotting game early on in our hunt.

On this particular trip, I hoped to serve both as a hunter and as a volunteer. I had already been blessed with an elk hunting opportunity this season, but had been able to come up for a second chance at my elk, and for a chance to assist my fellow hunters with handicaps to fill their tags as well. I wanted to give back in response to the gift that I had been given.

Our guides, most of who work at Trapper Mine, were excellent company. They had a way of inviting me and the other hunters into their fold with casual ease, and they treated each of us as if they had known us for years. I was glad to be able to ride along with several of them, as we scoured the hills in search of elk. The morning hunt was exciting but ultimately unsuccessful; no one in the group was able to make a clean shot. But the elk were there; all we needed was the right opportunity.

As luck would have it, that opportunity would come in the late afternoon. I was hunting with Rob in his truck, and he managed to spot a small cluster of cows down below us. When we made our way down to them, the elk seemed to become immediately uneasy, and they quickly began to make their way up the ridge to fade from view. Just before they crested the hill, I lined up a broadside shot and pressed the trigger. We would later learn that it was a clean double lung shot at 300 yards; the cow practically fell where she stood.

I am thrilled that I was able to harvest a cow this year, and am grateful to Outdoor Buddies for the opportunity. Yet, my favorite memory of this hunt came after we had already returned to Thornton the following day. In my excitement, I ended up misplacing a bag of clothing and gear, and left it behind back in Craig. However, I had exchanged numbers with my new friend Todd during the hunt, so I called him to see if he could bring the bag down with him when he left for home. He lives very close to me, so it was a simple matter to stop by his house to recover the bag after he got home. When I went to see him, we got to catch up about the hunt, pray together, and plan to spend more time together in the near future.

I am grateful for the success I experienced on this hunt—game in the freezer, a new experience for my wife, and the chance to connect and bond with other hunters like Todd. I am excited to spend more time participating with and serving alongside Outdoor Buddies.

Happy holidays, everyone!

Why They Call It Hunting

By Darrell Bowen

On Wednesday November 15, I along with my assistant Dave Remus met our guides Steve Nichols and Marti Brocko in Estes Park to begin our three day elk hunt in the area.

We started out on the north end of our allocated hunting areas and immediately saw 4 bulls, one a very nice six point.

I had a cow tag. Throughout our morning hunt we saw numerous bulls. No cows. We did encounter cows along the south end of the golf course. Unfortunately, they were in an area where we could not hunt.

Day two revealed the same results. We saw the same bulls, but no cows except on the golf course.

On day three we went out for one last chance to fill my tag.

We did see a couple of bulls on property we could hunt, but, alas, no cows.

However, as we were returning to Estes Park, we spotted a small group of cows with two bulls not far from the road on property we once had access to. So, unfortunately, my elk hunt ended with no elk.

My guides for this adventure, Steve Nichols, Martie Brocko and Jerry Spangler were very knowledgeable about the area and the locations for possible hunting opportunities.

I can't thank them enough for their help.

I wish to thank Outdoor Buddies for getting me this hunt and hope to do it again in the future.

Not all hunts are successful, that's why they call it hunting.

Cow Bison Hunt

This bison hunt will take place in October or November 2018 on a private ranch in Park County, Colorado and will be guided by a ranch manager.

The head, hide, and meat are the property of the hunter.

After the kill, guides will take care of field dressing your animal. Meat processing fees are not included, although we can help make arrangements.

Bison meat is great tasting and great for you! Most people say bison is the most flavorful meat they have ever tasted, with a sweeter and richer flavor than beef. It is not 'gamey' or wild tasting. Bison meat is much lower in fat and calories than other meats, including poultry and fish. 100 grams of bison meat contains 2.42 grams of fat, compared to 7.41 grams of fat for chicken, 8.09 grams for select beef, 9.66 grams of fat for pork, and 10.97 for salmon. In addition, 100 grams of bison meat amounts to 143 calories, which is half that of choice beef (283 calories) and still lower than most other meats. For example, 100 grams of chicken would be 190 calories, pork would be 212, select beef is 201 calories, and 100 grams of sockeye salmon is 216 calories.

This bison hunt opportunity is well suited for older and/or disabled persons who can no longer ride on horseback or walk over very rugged terrain.

Outdoor Buddies believes that everyone deserves the opportunity to enjoy the outdoors!

$20 per ticket or 6 tickets for $100

Winner to be drawn at Outdoor Buddies Banquet on April 21, 2018.

Do not need to be present to win.
