Executive Director’s Comments ~ By Dwaine Robey

Of course our primary focus this time of year is on preparations for the annual fundraiser banquet. Please make plans to attend! This year’s banquet celebrates thirty-two years of community service by Outdoor Buddies.

The funds raised at the annual banquet are critical to the success in meeting our mission to provide outdoor adventure experiences for disabled persons and youth. With your help, this year’s banquet will provide necessary funds for Outdoor Buddies to continue; improve, and expand its programs.

At last month’s board of directors meeting, Outdoor Buddies added two new members to its Board of Directors. We are extremely proud to welcome Dr. Frederick Solheim and Nicholas Filler as members of our Board.

Fred is the founder, organizer, fundraiser, and one of the boat captains for whitewater rafting trips for wounded warriors. He works tirelessly with Warriors on Cataract to aid in reintegrating injured soldiers back into civilian life and to show appreciation for their service to our country.

The raft trips on the Colorado River are designed to accommodate veterans with very significant levels of disability, such as severe PTSD, traumatic brain injury, orthopedic injuries, multiple amputations, burns, depression, substance abuse, and those with wheel chairs and service dogs.

Nick is an avid outdoorsman and brings a wealth of experience and knowledge that will be extremely beneficial to Outdoor Buddies and our programs.

As a specialist in marketing and advertising at Cabela’s he has developed excellent skills in relationship building and is a team player with experience working in a wide variety of outdoor activities. He has participated in several Outdoor Buddies activities and has proven his ability to work with mobility-disabled persons in the field. Outdoor Buddies is very fortunate to have Nick as a member of our management team!

Reminder - The 2016 banquet will be held at the Omni Interlocken Hotel in Broomfield on Saturday, April 23rd. Banquet tickets can be purchased using the forms included in this newsletter or from the Outdoor Buddies website at www.outdoorbuddies.org.

Why wait; make your reservation now! Consider reserving a table for ten (10) at the banquet. That way you and your friends will be assured that you can share a table at the banquet.

You may also want to reserve a room and stay over after the banquet at the Omni Interlocken Hotel. Outdoor Buddies guests can reserve a room at a reduced rate of $95.00 per night plus tax. You can reserve your rooms online at: http://www.omnihotels.com/hotels/denver-interlocken/meetings/outdoor-buddies

If you have suggestions or comments, you are encouraged to contact any of the Outdoor Buddies board members. You can reach me at: (719) 783-9044 or dwaine.robey@outdoorbuddies.org.
President’s Corner
By Larry Sanford

This time of year we don’t know if it’s going to snow, rain or blow so hard the roof is going to take off! Spring is a great time of year for fundraisers of all types.

Outdoor Buddies was recognized at the Pueblo Friends of NRA Banquet.

Don Reed, Penelope Sanford and I attended the banquet and accepted a grant in the amount of $1758.33 on Outdoor Buddies behalf.

Dwaine and Ann Robey as well as Dylan Harrell among other Outdoor Buddies members have been very active in the Friends of NRA! Outdoor Buddies thanks all the Friends of NRA volunteers for the great support that helps make Outdoor Buddies the wonderful organization it is today! Outdoor Buddies could not provide our programs without financial assistance made available through Friends of NRA Committees around Colorado.

Outdoor Buddies will be having our annual Fundraiser Banquet on April 23rd. I would like to ask each of you who participate in our hunting, fishing, family day events, and other Outdoor Buddies activities to BUY RAFFLE TICKETS!

We are offering some great raffles prizes, such as the 25-gun safe and five guns for $100.00 per ticket and only 200 will be sold! WINNER TAKES ALL!

We hope you will attend the fundraiser banquet, but if you are unable to attend please feel free to buy a ticket or even a table for those who are unable to afford one. We have Corporate Tables available as well. It will be a fun night full of games, laughter and stories.

Outdoor Buddies board of directors, officers and other volunteers work very hard to bring these fun events at no charge to the mobility-impaired, youth, and our many veterans who we proudly serve.

The only way this can be continued is for each of us to get our friends and families to donate with us leading the way! This is that time of year we all ask each of us to give back to this great organization, Outdoor Buddies!

If you have not already done so, now is the time for mobility-disabled members to submit 2016 big game hunt requests. Big game hunt requests can be submitted via the Outdoor Buddies website.

If you are disabled and want to go on an Outdoor Buddies sponsored big game hunt in 2016 you need to submit your “hunt request” as soon as possible. We are currently placing the available hunt slots with hunt requests we already have received.

We will be notifying everyone who has sent in a hunt request by March 28th so hunters can apply for hunting licenses via the Colorado Parks & Wildlife’s limited drawing before the April 6th deadline. Please contact me if you have any questions about this process.

Anyone who has a youth 12 years to 17 years old who has a hunter’s safety certificate and wants to participate in doe pronghorn hunting should contact me to get on the list for a “Youth Outreach” doe pronghorn hunt.

If you have questions please feel free to contact me at (970) 218-5356 or email at popsorris@gmail.com.

Thank you all for your friendship and continued support!

God Bless!

Elk Hunt
By Jim Spears

My name is Jim Spears and I was born with Cerebral Palsy. A friend of mine told me about Outdoor Buddies, so I contacted them about a possible elk hunt here in Colorado.

Dwaine Robey was very helpful getting me situated and took me out the first time I hunted, but unfortunately we did not see anything.

The second time I went out with Darrell Erickson. It was the last day of the weekend and we had not seen any elk and were almost ready to call it quits. Then Rob Adams, another able-buddy who was along to help with the hunt got a call from his friend Dan Warner that there was a herd of elk on his property.

We rushed over there and luckily the elk were still there at about 250 yards and I was able to fire a shot, but unfortunately missed. That was the very first shot I've ever gotten at an elk, what a thrill that was.

Rob took me out a few weeks later for one last day to try in fill my tag. We saw some bulls at a far distance then saw a herd of cow elk and tried to get within range. But due to the snow being crunchy from melting and freezing Rob was unable to get me closer before they ran into the trees.

Outdoor Buddies does their very best to help hunters with disabilities get out and enjoy nature and hunt.

I would highly recommend Outdoor Buddies to those with disabilities and I hope to try again to get an elk next year.

Thank all of you who took me out I really appreciate your efforts to try to help me fill my tag.

Goose Hunts
By Al Montoya

Outdoor Buddies goose hunts are typically scheduled on an as needed basis.

George Carter has helped provide goose hunting opportunities during the past year. It started in late 2014 after George talked with his neighbor, Loran Friend. Loran informed George that he had some property near Barr Lake with a goose blind and would allow access to Outdoor Buddies hunters.

George went and checked out the property and determined that the design of the blind limited use to able bodied people who can stand.

So, George and Scott Greaser set up a temporary blind. Then George asked me if I wanted to go hunt some geese with him. Of course I said yes! We went out and both got geese.

During the next summer, George, Scott, and Loran got together and figured out a way to modify the blind to accommodate two wheelchairs plus room for two helpers. They used a backhoe and modified the blind to make it usable by disabled hunters.

Thanks to their work this last year of hunting was very good.

Special thanks to Mr. Loran Friend!

Tarryall Ice Fishing
By Jim Piper

The Outdoor Buddies Ice fishing event at Tarryall Reservoir on February 20 was great fun. Our group of nine ice treading anglers set up on 3 ½ inches of ice, which was of great surprise to those of us urban dwellers who have been enjoying the unusually warm weather in the Denver Metro area.

For lunch Ivan Brooks and Dwaine Robey grilled brats and we enjoyed a mid-day feast with plenty of glorious sunshine.

Ivan Brooks prepares lunch for the hungry fishermen.

Even though the tales told while waiting for the fish to bite were glorious, the fish decided to take the day off. We vowed to make them pay the next time we venture out upon the ice.

Coyote Hunting Opportunities
By Al Montoya

Outdoor Buddies coyote hunting coordinator, Al Montoya, can schedule coyote hunts at a ranch near Watkins, Colorado. Al schedules hunts on an as needed basis. If you would like to do a coyote hunt give Al a call.

Also, please contact Al if you know of property owners who will allow Outdoor Buddies access to their property for coyote hunts.

You can contact Al at 303.296.4610 or via Email at agmontoya@q.com.

My Outdoor Buddies South Park Elk Hunt

By Vijay Viswanathan

As I dropped down off Kenosha Pass into South Park my senses were already on high alert. This was going to be my last chance at an elk before the season was over, and I was determined to make it count.

As I came over the summit I immediately started scanning the high altitude basin for any sign of the prized game. This area is a well-known wintering area for elk in central Colorado, and I’ve spotted hundreds, if not thousands, of the animals in and around South Park over the 13 years I’ve lived in Colorado.

As I approached the town of Jefferson I debated whether or not to take a detour around Tarryall Reservoir to scout a nearby ranch that Outdoor Buddies has permission to hunt.

Just as I was about to make the turn I noticed a herd of about 25 cow elk off to the south, a good sign indeed.

I watched the herd for a few minutes and then continued on to Fairplay to meet my guides, Jim Peterson and Lew Kleinhans.

As I crested Red Hill Pass another herd came into view.

This one got me even more fired up as I realized they were on the property we were planning to hunt, almost within range of where we would be setting up. I veered off onto a side road leading to the ranch entrance.

I crept in, hoping to get a more precise location of where they were grazing. There were about 60 cows huddled together in the middle of the pasture, about 600 yards from the main ranch road.

I immediately backed out, worried they might see my truck and spook. All I could do now was pray they would still be there in the morning!

I raced to the hotel to inform Jim and Lew of my discovery, and get a plan going for the morning. They were excited to hear about the elk, and as often happens during hunting season, I had a hard time getting any sleep that night.

Morning couldn’t come soon enough. I was a little concerned about the timing of a low pressure system that was forecast to move into the area that day, and hoped it would hold off long enough for us to do what we needed to do before the snow and wind arrived.

The South Park basin is known for being notoriously windy, and blowing snow can cut visibility to less than a few feet in seconds, definitely not accommodative conditions when trying to make a 300 yard shot on a moving elk.

At the moment though there was little wind and clear skies as we fired up the trucks and made our way out to the ranch.

The elk were still there, but were bedded down a little further away, definitely out of shooting range. They didn’t appear to be going anywhere anytime soon, so we decided to go scout some other properties and check back later in the afternoon.

We didn’t see much activity the rest of the morning, and when we returned to the ranch we found the elk were up and had moved a little closer to the area we were planning to set up.

Two other Outdoor Buddies had joined us today, Edgar Munoz Jr., a youth hunter, and his father Edgar Sr.

They were anxious to try to stalk in and try to get within range of the herd.

I use a wheelchair 100% of the time, so was forced to hang back and watch their hunt from the road, in hopes that the elk might move my direction.

As the other two hunters made their way up to Red Hill to look for an access point the snow started coming down, and the wind picked up.

One minute I could clearly see the herd, and the next all I could see was white. The snow came in waves, and elk were disappearing from view along with it.

As the other hunters moved in, the snow lightened up, and I could see the elk start to move south.

I heard Jim’s voice over the radio telling me to reposition closer to where he thought they might cross the road, so I cranked up the truck and made my way to the new location.

By the time I got to the anticipated crossing the elk were in a full run and stopped about 300 yards from me.

I pulled off the road, turned off the truck, and moved as fast as possible to ready my rifle before they took off again.

As I looked through the scope I realized that there were 60 or so animals in front of me, and I didn’t have a shot at any of them. They were too close together, and if I fired I would risk shooting through one and into another, or more.

I waited a minute, and the lead cow pulled away, just enough to give me a shot. I fired.

She was hit. I immediately chambered and fired another round. She was in a great place for us to access her and I didn't want her running off any further. She went down within seconds and expired quickly.

A wave of relief swept over me as I picked up the radio to inform Lew and Jim of the good news.

A couple minutes later I made out the orange of the other two hunters approaching through the snow.

It can’t get much better than this! It was a clean kill, the elk was down in a great location, and I had plenty of help to get her tagged, dressed out, and loaded into the truck.

To top it all off the other hunters were able to stalk along the edge of the creek where the herd was now hiding, and make a successful shot to fill their tag as well.

We were all ecstatic! The hunt couldn’t have gone any better.

Between the five of us we made quick work of the carcass before the storm and plummeting nighttime temperatures became a serious threat.

As I drove back to the hotel, I thought about how good it felt to be able to have these experiences despite my paralysis, and how grateful I was for Outdoor Buddies.

Outdoor Buddies and all of their volunteers make these hunts a reality for so many hunters who otherwise wouldn’t be able to get out and fully enjoy the great outdoors.

I’d like to thank the Middle Fork Ranch and especially the Outdoor Buddies guides and other volunteers for making this hunt possible!

Pheasant Hunt at Drake Land Farms

By Dwaine Robey

Outdoor Buddies held an upland bird hunt hosted by Drake Land Farms near Goodrich, Colorado on Saturday, February 27th.

Drake Land Farms is a hunting club started in 1980. The property includes 867 acres with 1.5 miles of the South Platte River. It provided ideal habitat for our pheasant hunting event. Outdoor Buddies extends our thanks and appreciation to Chris Nowak and the other member/owners of Drake Land Farms for their hospitality and willingness to share their fabulous property.

The weather conditions were perfect for the approximately 40 participants in the outing.

Outdoor Buddies president, Larry Sanford, and his wife, Penny, prepared lunch for everyone there; and it was ever special! They served Louisiana style gumbo prepared using their own family recipe. What a treat!
